IMAGINE SOLVING THAT PROBLEM BY BEING BETTER AT IMAGINING

COURSE OVERVIEW

This half-day open course on creativity and problem solving will literally open your eyes about innovation. It is packed with practical suggestions for solving business problems.

“We only have a problem because we haven’t thought of a solution yet”. This course will give you a systematic approach to being creative through using different problem solving techniques that can be applied in any situation. It is very ‘hands-on’ and will involve using the techniques on a variety of problems.

WHAT YOU WILL GAIN

- Creating the right mindset and environment for creativity
- The three-step structure for any business problem
- Seven different ways of problem solving
- Asking questions and continuous improvement
- Prioritising ideas and how to make informed decisions
